

KYOTO TABLES

CONTRACT FURNITURE

“Roger Lewis’ furniture has real ‘soul’, which means it gets an emotional response from those that interact with it. And this isn’t solely reserved for the residential pieces, the element of comfort that is so crucial for the Roger Lewis team, means it translates to the commercial pieces too.

We’ve taken this ethos and weaved it into every piece within the Kyoto collection, alongside practical elements that are required for work and hospitality spaces. With the privacy chairs and sofas, in particular, we’re allowing architects and designers the ability to break down large open spaces, without adding anything that’s too overpowering, to offer some peace and tranquillity.” Richard Jones

All our range names are places of tranquillity for our team. Kyoto is a beautiful city on the island of Honshu, Japan. Memories of walking through the gardens in the crisp air seeing the colours of the leaves, and feeling the history and culture all around.

DESIGNER

RICHARD JONES

With a background in Furniture & Product Design, Rich worked in house with Lyndon and Boss Design for 10 years before established his design studio in 2018.

Rich’s passion is working hands on with his clients to understanding the materials and production to create a pared back, understated appearance with as few visual elements as possible. His aim is to create an emotional connection between the object and user, that stands the test of time. Rich lives in Cheltenham, England with his wife and young daughter.
